

'SADIE HAWKINS' DANCE . . . Torrance high school students dance during the noon-time Sadie Hawkins' day celebration held last week. Nancy White was chairman of the dance which more than 150 students attended. The dance was highlighted by the "shotgun wedding" of Eddie "L'il Abner" Cole, THS football coach, and Cliff "Daisy Mae" Graybehl, football and basketball coach, at which Principal Lloyd "Pappy" Waller gave the "blushing bride" away. (Torrance Herald Photo).

Sadie Hawkins Captures Her Man At School Dance

Who said this was Torrance? If this city wasn't Dogpatch last Wednesday, at least around the vicinity of Torrance high school, then L'il Abner ain't the handsomest critter in the mountains.

It was Sadie Hawkins day at the high school, celebrated by a noon-hour dance in the auditorium attended by 200 Daisy Maes, L'il Abners and what-have-you.

Roars went up from the assembled Dogpatches when Sadie (B football coach Cliff Graybehl) strode in with her sad sack of a victim, Coach Eddie Cole. Best man, Principal Lloyd Waller and all the happy relatives stood guard during a shotgun "wedding" at which Marryin' Sam, a slightly slimmer version of Phil Anast, officiated.

Fugitives from the hills attending the dance included Lynn Smith, the little lady with the great big shoes; Joan Munford, with a year's supply of freckles and pigtails, and Bob Waters, reported to be somewhere underneath a long coat seen dancing with the wimmen-folk.

The Girls' Athletic Association, headed by Nancy Whyte, cleared $15 on the dance in Dogpatch Confederate currency.

To Make 1,000 Miles Of Pipe Hull Writes On Education

Officials of the Consolidated Steel Corporation announced today the firm is about to start construction of approximately 1,000 miles of 30 and 31 inch expanded pipe for the Arabian government for use in the Saudi Arabian oil fields, extending to the Mediterranean.

The expanded steel pipe will also be utilized in two new gas storage units by the Southern Counties Gas Co.

Entitled "Public Relations Can Make or Break" an article by J. Henrich Hull, superintendent of Torrance schools, was published in the October issue of "The Nation's Schools," education magazine.

Mr. Hull analyzed the importance of good public relations in advancement of education in America, and pointed out the lack of interpretation programs at the present time.

New Science Church Starts

A new edifice for First Church of Christ, Scientist, Redondo Beach, now is being constructed at the northwest corner of S. Broadway and Sapphire sts.

The building will be of modified colonial design.

An ample sized foyer, auditorium and Sunday school room are being constructed. They will be lighted with an indirect lighting system.

The exterior of the church will be stucco and the roof is red shingle tile.

The church is being constructed by Eshevich Brothers Los Angeles contractors. George S. Morlan, Redondo Beach architect, is the building designer.
